Farmingville, NY - On January 14, Councilwoman Jane Bonner attended the 2011 Annual Installation Dinner of the Port Jefferson Volunteer Ambulance Corps at Majestic Gardens in Rocky Point. Councilwoman Bonner presented Certificates of Appreciation to the outgoing officers in honor of their service to the community and the Ambulance Corps.

"First responders are called on every day to save lives and it is my honor to have the opportunity to thank them for all that they do," said Councilwoman Bonner. "These volunteers will leave their homes and families at any hour, day and night to help their neighbors and they should know that their commitment to serving the community is greatly appreciated by all."
